Transitioning from military service to civilian life can be overwhelming without the right tools and support. For thousands of Servicemembers, Veterans, and Military Spouses, this is their reality.

Operation New Uniform (ONU) empowers them to build purposeful, stable careers through proven, life-changing training—offered entirely free, thanks to our generous donors and grantors.

These men and women served our nation selflessly; now, it's our turn to honor their service and sacrifices.

Class 61 Alumni

Each year, 200,000 Servicemembers transition to civilian life, impacting families, businesses, and communities.

The need for ONU is great and growing with a waiting list for all classes, both in-person and online.

Hiring ONU Alumni isn't just meaningful—it's smart, with tax credits up to $9,500 for employers.
